Short Course

Communicating Better with a Hearing Loss

Enroll today in Communicating Better with a Hearing Loss, a short course at the Center for Hearing and Communication (CHC) for people with all degrees of hearing loss seeking better communication in challenging situations.

Working in small groups with a CHC speech therapist and audiologist, you'll learn and practice strategies to help you communicate better, even in noisy environments.

Groups meet once-a-week in the Listening Studio™ - an audio-visual installation where you can experience 500 different listening scenarios.

Whether you use a cochlear implant, hearing aid, or no device at all, you can improve your skills in just four sessions.

Full payment of $185 is due at registration.
